NEWS BRIEF: Colusa County Public Health Officer Rescinds Local Facial Covering Order.

The Public Health Order requiring individuals to wear facial coverings (masks) within indoor public spaces in Colusa County has been rescinded by Dr. Julian Delgado, MD, Colusa County Public Health Officer. The rescission goes into effect Thursday, September 30th at 12:01AM.

"The virus is still active in our community, and we continue to urge personal responsibility to mitigate further transmission," said Dr. Delgado. "This includes maintaining basic public health protocols of handwashing, remaining home when sick, and seeking early treatment upon onset of illness."

While the local Public Health Order has been rescinded, individuals must continue to follow the COVID-19 (Coronavirus) requirements and guidance issued by the California Department of Public Health (CDPH), including guidance for K-12 schools, childcare programs, and the use of face coverings.
